

Involving People with Personal Experience
in the Training of Clinical Psychologists

Clinical Psychology Training Programme at the University of Bath invites you to an

OPEN EVENING

When?

Wednesday 11th of October 2017
from 5pm to 7pm

Where?

Graduate Commons at the University of Bath
Building 10 West, Level 5
University of Bath
Claverton Down, BATH BA2 7AY

The University of Bath provides professional post graduate training for psychologists. The training programme is strongly committed to working together with people with personal experience (PPE).

PPEs include people with personal experience of psychological difficulties and/or psychological therapy, as well as people who might have physical health or neurological difficulties that cause distress and bring them into contact with clinical psychologists. Our

PPEs also include carers and people who may not have experienced a psychological difficulty themselves, but have supported a loved one in going through such an experience and accessing services provided by clinical psychologists.

We are currently looking for more people with personal experience to become involved in our training course. There are a variety of work opportunities in teaching, committees, research and admissions. Support in the role and training will be provided.

This Open Evening is for people with personal experience, regional clinical psychologists, clinical tutors and trainees on the Bath Clinical Psychology Training Programme.

Come and hear more about PPE partnership and how to get involved.
Light refreshments will be provided.

Please help us plan accordingly by letting us know if you are coming by calling our administrator Dan Clifford on 01225 385506, or emailing BathCP-admin@bath.ac.uk

Involving People with Personal Experience
in the Training of Clinical Psychologists

Clinical Psychology Training Programme at the University of Bath invites you to an

OPEN EVENING

When?

Wednesday 11th of October 2017
from 5pm to 7pm

Where?

Graduate Commons at the University of Bath
Building 10 West, Level 5
University of Bath
Claverton Down, BATH BA2 7AY

The University of Bath provides professional post graduate training for psychologists. The training programme is strongly committed to working together with people with personal experience (PPE).

PPEs include people with personal experience of psychological difficulties and/or psychological therapy, as well as people who might have physical health or neurological difficulties that cause distress and bring them into contact with clinical psychologists. Our

PPEs also include carers and people who may not have experienced a psychological difficulty themselves, but have supported a loved one in going through such an experience and accessing services provided by clinical psychologists.

We are currently looking for more people with personal experience to become involved in our training course. There are a variety of work opportunities in teaching, committees, research and admissions. Support in the role and training will be provided.

This Open Evening is for people with personal experience, regional clinical psychologists, clinical tutors and trainees on the Bath Clinical Psychology Training Programme.

Come and hear more about PPE partnership and how to get involved.
Light refreshments will be provided.

Please help us plan accordingly by letting us know if you are coming by calling our administrator Dan Clifford on 01225 385506, or emailing BathCP-admin@bath.ac.uk